The Steward's report, including that upon secessitous cases, was read and adopted. The total claim for the year was $8,215, and the deficiency was $1,277.

The report of the Missionary Committee was received and adopted. The total amount raised was $95 15; one-third advance upon the previous year, $203 05 of this amount was collected on Saturday night at the Missionary Anniversary. This was a most interesting occasion. The Rev. Dr. Wiley, editor of the Ladies' Repository at Cincinnati, delivered a discourse in behalf of the Missionary Society of the Kenhalf of the Missionary Society of the Ken-tucky Conference, which was a succinet view of the present status of the world, and full of enlightenment. He was for some years missionary to China. Rev. Dr. Par-sons followed him with an address, at times humorous, witty, and pathetic, eventuating in the lifting from the pockets of the assembly the very handsome amount above stated. The officers of this society for the ensuing year are as follows: J. T. Harrison, President; G. W. Johnson, Secretary; W. A. Dotson, Treasurer. Managers—Revs. Darlington, Lashbrook, and Reasoner.

concurred in by Bishop Morris. REPORT ON TEMPERANCE. From all the facts gleaned from various sources of information as well as from daily observations, we are led to the sad conclusion that the vice of Intemperance is increasing at a fearfully rapid rate in our land. It is an especial source of sadness to witness the blighting influence which in-toxicating drinks are daily exerting upon he young men of our country, multitudes of whom are falling victims to the terrible vice, are robbed of their manhood, and in vice, are robbed of their manhood, and in every sense of the word rendered unfit to exercise properly the functions, or discharge safely the responsible duties of citizens of a free and independent nation. Thousands of our young men—the very flower of our land, whom the dreadful necessity of war have taken from their homes into the army, and are induced by the influences surrounding them to take intoxicating drinks to fire up their passions and cating drinks to fire up their passions and madden them for the deadly conflict, will return to their homes greatly demoralized, and cause a flood of intemperance to spread over our land, unless checked, greater and period in our country's history when as hristians and friends of humanity we have had greater reason for alarm than at present. This is very far from being a time for inactivity. It is now that the most vigorous efforts possible should be put forth in order that this great evil may be checked n its work of destruction. Therefore.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to renew our exertions in promoting and establishing the principles of temperance within the bounds of our charges. The Committee on the State of the Country and of the Church made the following eport: Resolved, That with profound reverence we recognize Almighty God as the Gover-nor of Nations. In the history of our fa-thers, and of the United States especially, in the progress towards universal freedom, since the present national struggle with the slaveholders' rebellion began, we see the power and goodness of God as clearly as the heavens declare his glory.

Resolved, That we have great respect for and confidence in the Chief Magistrate of the nation. We congratulate him on the brightening prospect of speedily crushing the rebellion; approve his administration, including his proclamation of freedom to the slave, and hereby pledge ourselves to labor for liberty and the elevation of the human race, and to continue to pray for the decorporate of the property and the continue to pray for the decorporate. Church in Kentucky are encouraging; the probable emancipation by the next session of our Legislature in the growing antislavery sentiment of the common people, together with the fact that the truly loyal people in our State, who wish to be Metho-dists, look to our church for a home, pre-sent us a field "white to the harvest." ments, remarking that, since the formation of the Kentucky Conference, in 1852, he had presided over five of their annual gatherings. He had come to know and appreciate their circumstances. The openings before them now were very encouraging. Official members of a certain circuit interrogated him on his way to conference at one time thus: "Suppose you send us good preachers, Bishop?" "Oh, yes," said the Bishop, elaborating his idea of goodness, the aim of himself and colaborers was to send them godly men, &c. But not being understood, "We want," said they, "great preachers." He answered by saying that if a brother had weak points, sent to labor with them, he should be prayed for to be made great. The it interrogate. their, the names of Josephus White and Wm. Guerrillas at Elizabethtown.

ELIZABETHTOWN, KY., March 8, '65. On yesterday evening a band of guerrilas, five in number, made a dash into this place, frightening the people generally. They took a coat from James More, merchant, some cigars and whisky from Felix Rosier. Seeing the Federal troops aproaching from the stockade and firing on hem, they returned a few shots and left. Fortunately none of the citizens were hurt, hough some of the shots came very near to ome of them. A man by the name of Birch was recog-ized among the gang, but whether he was ommander or not I cannot say. A band of guerrillas under Sol. Thompson made a raid through Hardin and Larue on last Friday. They called at Lewis B. Walker's, on the Louisville and Nashville ailroad, Glendale station, burned his storerailroad, Giendale station, burned his store-house—a new one that he had put up since Lyon's men burned him out in December. After burning the store they went to his house and threatened to kill him, cursed and abused his wife and daughter for every thing they could think of that was bad, among the balance, calling them d—d'abolitionists. They helped themselves to several horses, &c., in the neighborhood.

The other made his escape. They took out a man in the neighborhood of Big Spring who had belonged to the Home Guards, by the name of James Martin tied him to a log and paddled him severely with clapboards. They kicked his wife several times and struck her with a pistol on the head because she plead for her husband. They took a good suit of clothes husband. They took a good suit of clothes from Silas Noman and some one else the same day. Those desperadoes are growing more numerous and desperate. If it still continues until the leaves come out in the spring, persons will be in danger going anywhere through the country.

Military Summary.

It is confidentially believed that Sherman has reached the Cape Fear river without accident. We could not ask more favorable accident. We could not ask more lavorable fortune. The good work speeds so auspiciously, that in years to come school children will think we are trifling with their credulity. If we don't get a thrashing before long, we shall grow intolerably vainglorious.

The North Carolina papers, having concluded that the doctrine of State rights is the cause of dissension, are gone to the oth-er extreme, and advocate the obliteration of State lines and establishment of a central government. This is an indication of the bsolute ignorance of southern publicists of the nature of our government. It is impossible to convince them that in overturning the heresies of Calhoun we are not uprooting the foundations of the republic. Any northern school boy can teach them.

News Summary.

The factious, ultra, unwise and obstinate opposition to the Senators from Arkansas and Louisiana continues in the Senate chamber. As to the personal merits or denerits of the claimants we know nothing: but abstractly they are certainly entitled to their seats. It is to be hoped that we have not fought for four years for our doctrine of State rights, only to see our own leaders de-sert the most beautiful theory of government ever invented and go back to a plan condemned by history two thousand years History does not pronounce more distinctly against a loosely jointed federation than it does against a gigantic centralized democracy.

The Senate has created a standing Committee on mines. It is to be hoped one of the good results will be the adoption of the policy of selling mineral lands. I have also secured the locks from the iron gates of the American Bastile, as evidence that at last we have possession of the proud old city.

Mr. Pitt, speaking in the House of Commons of the glorious war which preceded the disastrous one in which England lost the colonies, called it "the last war." Several members cried out, "the last war but one." He took no notice; and soon after, repeating the mistake, he was interrupted by a general cry of "The last war but one—the last war but one." "I mean sir," said Mr. Pitt, turning to the speaker and raising Mr. Pitt, turning to the "I mean sir, said Mr. Pitt, turning to the "I mean, sir, the last war that Britons would wish to remember." Whereupon the cry was instantly changed to an universal cheering, long and loud.

Our City Police.

The question comes up to-night, we understand, before the City Council of Louisville of uniforming the police force of the

On the pure merits of the case, we do not see how there can be much discussion, or of the measure has been settled by the experience of every large city in christendom. It is not a matter of theory at all. The growth of cities in this country has, in one instance after another, developed the imperative necessity of the measure. The demand for a police force that shall be known by its garb exists wherever the demand Sheridan's victory grows apace. Forty officers, thirteen hundred prisoners, eight cannon, a hundred wagons—but no Early. It is enough. Sherman is the greatest General of the age, but Sheridan is the most remarkably favored by fortune. "Te Deum" easily recognized insignia of office.

When a city has attained a certain size as to area and population, this necessity becomes irresistible and is universally acknowledged. But the necessity is present from the beginning in more or dess urgent form. That it has attained the imperative mood in Louisville is we believe more nearly a unanimous conviction of our citizens than anything that could be named.

That a policeman should wear some symbol of his authority is only second in importance to his possession of that authority. Since the days of Eden human nature has stood in conother. In private enterprises the prospect of private aggrandizement furnishes abundant stimulus to action, and the network of society and of law, the needful restraints. But the man who works for the public needs some extraneous propelling influence for his inertia, not less than a check for his selfishness.

Rebel Unanimity.

Gov. Brown, of Georgia, is perhaps the most disgusted man in the Confederacy. At any rate he makes the most parade of his disgust. His late message shows how great a unanimity was accomplished through the reaction of the peace-negotiacause for delay in action. The importance tion failure. It will be remembered that the grandest results of unity and matchless devotion to the cause, were predicted from that failure, by the high-fliers in Richmond and elsewhere in rebeldom. But Governor Brown for one has not been very seriously unitized by it. He says: Our government is a military despotism, diffing into anarchy, and if the present policy is persisted in it must terminate in reconstruction with or without subjugation. Governor Brown states that he is utterly opposed to both; but if he favored either he would give his earnest support to the policy of the President, as the surest mode of diminishing our armies, exhausting our re-sources, and breaking the spirit of our people, and driving them in despair to seek refuge from worse tyranny by placing themselves under a Government they loathe and detest.

He opposes the arming of the slaves, believing them to be more valuable as agricultural laborers than they could be as soldiers. They do not wish to go into the army, and the principal restraint now upon them is the tear that if they leave the enemy will make them fight. Compel them to take up arms, and they will desert by thousands.

Whatever may be our opinion of their normal condition or interests, we cannot expect them to perform deeds of heroism when fighting to continue the enslavement motive in accepting his functions he will of their wives and children, and it is not reasonable to demand it of them. He uniformed, is altogether too often, not even fails to discern the unselfish devotion to the public weal, in Humphrey Marshall's project of taking somebody else's constituency common and persistent than the tendency "by the nape of the neck," and thrusting them into the army:

For the cure of existing evils he recom of Eden human nature has stood in constant need of coercion of one kind or anareturn to the constitutional mode of raising troops, by requisitions upon the States the observance of good faith with the sol diers by paying them promptly, the abandoment of impressments and secret sessions of Congress, no more representation without a constituency, and, finally, taking from the President his power as Commandar in Chief der-in-Chief.

This is not an inspiring view of things.

Importance of Richmond.

As nothing is more probable in the immediate future than the evacuation of Richmond by the rebel army and government, and a prompt acquiescence in the measure of his duty. It occurs in a long comment upon Jeff, Davis's public remark that the abandonment of Richmond would not be fatal to the cause, nor particularly disastrous.

Let not this fatal error be harbored till it takes root in the imagination. The evacuation of Richmond would be the loss of all respect and anthority toward the Confederate Government, the disintegration of the army, and the abandonment of the scheme of an independent Southern Confederation. The war would, after that, speedily degenerate into an irregular contest, in which passion would have more to do than puroose; which would have no other object than the mere defense or present safety of that any possibility of an independent South would remain after its capital was abandoned, its Government set adrift, and its army withdrawn into the solitudes of the interior.

Each contestant in the war has made Each contestant in the war has made Richmond the central object of all its plans and all its exertions. It has become the symbol of the Confederacy. Its loss would be material ruin to the cause, and, in a moral point of view, absolutely destructive, crushing the heart and extinguishing the last hope of the country. Our armies would lose the incentive inspired by a great and worthy object of defense. Our military policy would be totally at sea; we should be without a hope or an object; without civil or military organization; without a treasury or a commissariat; without the means of keeping alive a wholesome and active public sentiment; without any of the appliances for supporting a cause depending upon the popular faith and enthusiasm; without the emblems of the semblance of nationality.

The war cannot be carried on much longer against us if we prove but true to ourselves; and the single test of success will be our determination, and shifter to be desired to the semblance of the single test of success will be our determination, and shifter to be desired.

ourselves; and the single test of success will be our determination and ability to hold Richmond. Other cities may fall, the rest of the Confederacy may succumb; but the cause still remains safe so long as Rich-mond and Virginia are held.

Two boys who have had some experience at the case. Inquire at this office.

The friends of the Administration in Lebanon, Ky., had quite a pleasant and extensive celebration of the inauguration of inst. The Provost Marshal's office, a large and commodious building, was the center of attraction. Numerous transparencies like these: "Emancipation," "Free Labor," "Lincoln and Johnson," "Union," "Grant," "Sherman," "Thomas," "Death to Slavery," &c. The Provost Marshal's office was beautifully illuminated, and the display of fireworks was extensive and elegant. About 9 o'clock in the evening the crowd collected before the Provost Marshal's office, and, after repeated cheering, succeeded in getting speeches from F. B. Merimee and Captain Fidler directly supporting the Administration in all its measures, and especially urging the unconditional acceptance of the amendment to the Constitution, so lately and unwisely rejected by our Legislature. The pleasure of the evening was marred somewhat by the noise of some drunken soldiers, but, taken as a whole, was a happy festival to the Union party.

Mr. Armstrong, the able Councilman from the 7th ward, proposes to introduce an ordinance for the establishment of a uniformed police. This will be a very great au vance beyond our present antiquated system. In the first place, there are not nearly enough men on the force at present; and those not personally acquainted with them are often bacaly delayed when they have occasion for their instant services. A stranger cannot tell one when he meets him. This is not so in other cities. The police are always known by their "niform and badges; and we have often witne sed the facility with which their services can be had in case of urgency. Furthermore, the uniform receives a certain degree of respect which is often denied to a man who Miss Hud on was called before the curtain wears no badge of office. We give the ordinance in another column

A little Sunday School girl of Shelbyville, Kentucky, desired to do all she could for the homeless women and children from the South, now in Louisville. It was not in her power to send the Relief Commission a sum of money; but decorating the parlor was a beautiful painting, a fruit piece, the work of her own fingers, and valued by her far beyond its real worth. After quite a struggle in her mind between selfbenevolence the true sniri gained the throne, and the picture was sent to Rev. Mr. Sedwick, of this city, to be sold to the highest bidder, and the avails to "be given to the poor refugee." The picture is at Hegan's store, Main street, between Fourth and Fifth.

To start the matter and encourage such noble deeds, ten dollars is offered.

SOLDIER KILLED,-A soldier named Geo. W. Anderson, belonging to co. G,187th Ohio Regiment, was killed by the guard in the front of Maxwell Barracks, Nashville, Tuesday evening. It is stated that the deceased had been spitting out of the window, which is a violation of orders, and he had been notified to stop it, but paying no attention to the command, the guard fired, the ball takidg effect in the small of his back, and lodging in his body, causing instant death. Members of his company, ho wever, assert that just before his death he had notified a comrade not to spit out of the windo w, as it had been forbidden, and that he was s, tting in the window with his back to the st. eet. Anderson was from Mt. Vernon, Knox e unty, Ohio, and had but recently entered the service. He is represented to have been a great favorite in his company.

PROVOST ITEMS.-Willis Botts, who was drafted in Owen county, and failed to report, was arrested in the city yesterday, and turned over to Captain Womack.

Francis W. Duncan, company D, 12th Kentucky cavalry, Wm. Harrison, company E, and Wm. Price, company H, 27th Kentucky infantry, were sent to Barracks Prison by order of General Ewing.

James F. Cox, of Spencer county, was arrested in the city yesterday as a suspicious character, and sent to the Barracks.

Jas. Smith, a citizen, was arrested for dislovalty.

IMPORTANT REVENUE DECISION .- Mr. Rollins, acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has decided that "all bonds issued by State, county, city, or town officers, for State, county, city, or town purposes, are exempt. As are all official instruments executed by State, county, city, or town officers, in the discharge of their official capacity." ARRIVED .- The U. S. steamer "Robb," with mails and dispatches for Admiral S. P. Lee, arrived yesterday, from the Mound City navy yard, bound to Cincinnati. She is commanded by Capt. James Touhy, U. S. N., and brings as passengers, Lieut. T. A. Harris, U. S. N.; Surgeon J. T. Coates, the flood in the Ohio. U. S. N., and Lieut. H. C. Cochrane, of the U.S. Marine Corps. Capt. Touhy reports the flood as extending all the way to Cairo.

Special Ageut for the Eastern District of the Mississippi Valley, lying between the Allegheny mountains and the mouth of Tennessee river and extending as far South as our armies conquer the country.

S. C. MERCER.—We were favored yesterday with a visit from our radical friend Mercer of the Nashville Times. He has not grown much since we last saw him, except in hatred of rebellion and negro slavery.

SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNCIL.-There was a special meeting of the City Council last night. A communication from the Mayor was received stating that the meeting was called at the request of the Finance Committee, in order that the report of said committee for the present fiscal year might be presented and acted upon. An ordinance was adopted appropriating $381,165 to meet the deficiencies of the fiscal year. Resolutions were adopted crediting the City Tax Collectors, K. P. Thixton and A. Rammers, with the various amounts collected and paid into the City Treasury by them. A costs. resolution was also adopted allowing each of the Tax Collectors the sum of $700 in addition to their fixed salaries. No other business of importance was transacted. Council meets again to-night.

The Odd Fellows of this city are now holding meetings for a number of nights consecutively, this being the season of the official visitation of the Grand Officers of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky. M. S. Dowden, Grand M., and J. D. Pollard, Grand Rep., and a number of other officers of the Grand Lodge are in attendance. The Society is represented as being in a very prosperous condition in the State. The meetings are occasions of great interest to members of the Society, and are largely attended. They will be continued during the present, and part of next week.

CAPT. STEELE SENDS AN ORDER .- A day President Lincoln on the evening of the 4th or two ago, while the steamer Cuba was loading with corn at some point on the Kentucky shore, Capt. Duncan received a message from Capt. Steele, the notorious guerwere displayed bearing patriotic mottoes rilla leader, who demanded from him a bottle of whisky. He apologised for not calling, in person, on the ground that he had a long ride before him that day, and as he would be compelled to swim several lagoons and bayous he wanted some whisky to prevent illness.

As the Cuba was unarmed and unprotected Capt. Duncan thought it prudent to send the whisky.

BLACKWOOD FOR FEBRUARY .- Leonard Scott & Co., have ready the American reprint for February, which opens with a new story "Miss Marjoribanks." It also has the concluding chapters of "A visit to the Cities and Camps of the Confederate States"-another part of the humorous and profound reflection of the "O'Dowd" and papers on Knight Errantry in the 19th century, Modern Demonology-Entoniana and Gladstone. Civill & Calvert receive subscriptions at $4 per year.

THE FAIR.—The fair at Masonic Temple, under the auspices of the German Ladies' Aid Society and St. Lucas Society, is progressing finely, and will prove a decided success. New features of attraction are being constantly added, and an evening could not be spent anywhere more pleasantly. The proceeds of the fair are to be devoted to the erection of a new school-house.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.-Miss Leo Hudson, in "Mazeppa," attracted another full house last night. The play, as presented the Louisville, is the grand success of the sea on. At the conclusion of the play. and most ent. usiastically received by the audience. "Maz "ppa" will be repeated to-

The Superintendent of the Worknouse informs us that no colored men have been confined in that institution except those committed by the Court. He denies that negroes have been confined there in irons for no other reason or offense than that they refused to go into the army as substitutes, placed there by unprincipled men who hoped to profit by their operation. Somebody is evidently mistaken about it.

AMNESTY OATH,-B. B. Philpot, company F, 1st Kentucky rebel battery, from Meade county; Wm. C. Gilbraith, company C, 1st Kentucky infantry; R. P. Seay, Buckner's Guard; Wm. W. Blakemore and Wm. L. Riley, all of Jefferson county, took the oath at the Provost Marshal's office yesterday, having given themselves up, and were released. Riley was a lieutenant in the rebel army, and served for a time on Morgan's staff.

PRISONERS OF WAR .- Fifty prisoners of war, including two commissioned officers, were received at the Military Prison yesterday morning from Nashville, Seventyeight more from hospitals at Nashville will arrive to-night. Among the officers are Thomas P. Shaw, 19th South Carolina Infantry, and Major H. H. Aymett, 53d Tenness'ee Infantry.

Quite a revival of religion has been in progress at the Christian Church in New Albany, for the past week, under the m nistrations of Rev. Mr. Taylor of Kentucky. Almost every evening some have been baptized.

BARRACKS.—120 convalescents reported at Barracks No. 1 yesterday. 55 recruits were received from Columbus, Ohio, and 11 deserters from Cincinnati. 556 men were transferred to Nashville, 53 to New York, BARRACKS.-120 convalescents reported transferred to Nashville, 53 to New York, and 24 to Washington.

Robt. Elliott, Co. K, 30th Wisconsin, and Abraham Shekell, Co. G, 66th Indiana, were arrested yesterday, in the city, as de-

Brigadier General Nathan Kimball arrived in the city yesterday, and is stopping at the Louisville Hotel.

It is a rule of evidence in the courts, I be lieve, that when a witness knowinglo speaks falsely as to a material fact, he is not to be believed at all. Now, the above statement of German & Bro. is utterly false, for the reason that it is intended to convev the idea that my application to the Chancellor for an injunction was refused, whereas it was granted, but was not perpetuated. They also wish to convey the idea that the case was heard upon its merits by the Chancellor, whereas the truth is that, upon a preliminay motion in the case, the Judge came to the conclusion that the Chancery Court had no jurisdiction in the matter, and made this order: "The case is dismissed for want of jurisdiction." Does this look like the idea conveyed in the following words: "That we have Gold Still Lower .- Closing at 196. not been acting unlawfully in lithographing or selling the labels, has been decided by the Chancellor of the Louisville Chancery Court."

The other statements of this card are about upon a par with this. It requires the face of men who have dealt with the property of others as German & Bro. have with mine to enter the public prints with a card as full of untruth as theirs.

HDQ'RS DEPARTMENT OF KENTUCKY, LOUISVILLE, Ky. Feb. 25, 1865.

General Orders No. 4. Reliable evidence has reached these headquarters that emissaries of the rebel Gov-ernment are engaged in recruiting for their exhausted armies in the State of Kentucky. Appeals are again made to the young me of the State to disregard their duty and risk their lives and honor in a wrecked and desperate cause, while men who have de-serted the rebel service and are now peaceably at their homes are required to rejoin their commands, again encounter the perils of treason under the threatened penalty of betrayal to the Federal authorities, who, they are taught to believe, will treat them as outlaws and guerrillas,

To counteract these efforts to mislead the men who have, in good faith, deserted the rebel service, all deserters from the rebel armies, now in this Department, will, within thirty days from date, report themselves to the Provost Marshal of the county in which they reside for registry. And all persons who may hereafter desert from the rebel armies and come into this Depart-ment will, within five days after their arrival report themselves for the same pur-

"The Grave Yard of State Rights." PHILADELPHIA, March 8.—Richmond nce from North Carolina and Virginia. Newbern, N. C. March 1.—Intelligence from North Carolina papers indicate that both sections are concentrating for a fina struggle.

A Raleigh paper says: The people of this city will hear the guns of the great and last battle of the American rebellion, and the traditionary grounds of the old North State will be the common grave yard of State rights and State lines, without which no at-tempt at secession could have been made. The existence of State lines will afford suffi cient pretext to prompt great interest of one section to revolt against the government of the other section, and refuse to sacrifice their local interest.

History demonstrates the fact that personal interest is paramount to the life of the army, and to make us one family, one people, and obliterate these dangers, we must abolish State lines, which will give us a central head to which all loyal interest will be attracted, a Republican Government which will be the embodiment of free insti-tutions, a country in which people can't run riot and plunge into extremes under the cloak of Democracy.

Mr. Snow occupies the position of an alien enemy according to the laws.

kansas case,
Mr. Grimes said they could resume that question after referring the President's nominations to the proper committees.

right as if a foreign war existed.

The President, Congress and the Supreme Court have rec gnized this war in which belligerent rights attach to the United States. This led him to the conclusion that applicants from insurrectionary States, which by the President's proclamation, the act of Congress and the decision of the Su-preme Court, are declared portions of the party to civil war and alien enemies, are no nore entitled to seats than Toombs, from

Mr. Grimes replied to Mr. Davis' re-Quite a lengthy discussion ensued; Mr. lane, of Kansas, and several members par-

Mr. Trumbull did not see any difficulty receiving any respectful papers, as ereby the Senate did not commit itself to the object proposed. Mr. Sumner said three points might be dates were paid mileage and compensa-tion, to draw large numbers of them here, and thus deplete the treasury.

Mr. Lane replied that, when he came here as a claimant to represent a free State under the Topeka Convention, his credentials were received; and, although not admitted, he did not ask pay and mileage. The free State cause originated the Republican party, and led to the overthrow of the pro-slavery organization. If the heresy is to be insisted on that traitors are to be consulted in the canstruction of States, and in-surrectionary States are outside of tae Union, our party will be overthrown as the pro slavery party was overthrown.

Mr. Sumner suggested that the Senate put its foot on mileage and compensation. The mileage of the Senators from Louis-iana and Arkansas would be about eight housand dollars.

Mr. Howard said the Senate ought no receive the credentials because the so-called State of Arkansas did not exist in law or in act.

The credentials were referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Sumner offered the following reso-

Resolved, That where a State has been declared to be in insurrection no person can be recognized as Senator from such State, or as claimant of a seat as Senator from such State, until after the occurrence of three several conditions: 1st, Cessation of all armed hostility to the United States within the limits of such States. 2d. Adoption by such States of a Constitution, republican in form, and not repugnant to the Con-stitution and laws of the United States, and 3d, an act of Congress declaring the people of such State entitled to representation in the Congress of the United States. The Chair laid before the Senate a mes sage from the President enclosing a letter from the Secretary of State.

The Senate had requested the President to return the joint resolution prohibiting the payment of land grants to railroad companies.

The official reply is that the right of either house at a subsequent Congress to recall any bill or resolution may be regarded as questionable under the act of 1783, which makes no provisio s for any case similar to it under the Constitution. The law requires the copies and the riginals of all documents to be filed in the State Deof all documents to be filed in the State De-partment when not otherwise provided for, to keep such papers rather than return them to the Senate as has been the practice. NEW YORK, March 8.—The Herald's City Point correspondent, writing on the 6th, says there is no longer any doubt of Sheridan's movement up the valley having Sheridan's movement up the valley having been crowned with complete success. The concurrent testimony of all the deserters and refugees to-day, from Ord's right, north of the James, to Meade's extreme left, beyond Hatcher's Run south of Petersburg, is that he surprised and encountered the rebels under Early at Waynesboro, nearly midway between Staunton and Charlottesville, utterly routing and capturing the entire force, and securing, among the prisontire force, and securing, among the prisoners, the doughty General commanding. It is admitted by the rebels, according to the stories of deserters, to have been the most overwhelming affair of the war in proportion to the numbers engaged.

Very few details have been obtained bearing a stamp of reliability, but the whole region is represented as being unprepared for this sudden advent, and are fleeing in every direction to escape his relentless squadron.

The accounts agree so well in every particular and are in perfect accordance what was expected and known, that all are constrained to believe that Early and his army are indeed captured. Scouts report Sheridan in Staunton on Thursday. The capture of Early occurred the next day. By Saturday Sheridan would be in a condition to push for Lynchburg.

NEW YORK, March 8 .- The Tribune's Washington special says:
It is reported from Hancock's headquarters, at Winchester, that Sheridan had defeated Early, but that Early is not cap-

The Herald's Wilmington correspondent of the 23d says that they have there confirmation of previous reports that Gen. Sherman had reached Cape Fear river, It is said that he had struck that stream sixty miles above Wilmington previous to the 1st inst., thus completely spoiling the rebel plans for effecting concentration against him and forcing him to give battle in the vicinity of Goldsboro, at which point they expected to have a combination of advan-tages in their favor, which would insure

The Wilmington Journal, in its issue jus previous to the occupation of the town by the national forces, admitted that Sher-man's movements, if he was not soon checked, might have the effect of compelling Lee to abandon Richmond and Petersburg.

The Herald's City Point dispatch says: It s positively known that, on the 24th of Sebruary, Sherman was at Camden, S. C., on the Wateree river, a little over 100 miles southwest of Fayetteville, on the Cape Fear river, which town, it was believed, he has before now reached.

Rumors in the Army of the Potomac on Sunday last that General Sherman had defeated Johnston in a heavy battle, and cap-tured 1,500 prisoners.

The Herald's 5th corps correspondent says: It is reported that for some weeks a large force of negroes have been throwing fortifications along the banks of the Roanoke river. Several months since many old and exexperienced officers surmised that, if Lee was compelled to fall back from his present position, he would form a new defensive position, he would form a new defensive line along that stream, and will add greatly to the difficulty which an attacking column would have to overcome. The siege guns from Petersburg and Richmond have been sent off in that direction, via the Danville railroad, and many things seem to indicate that his army will soon be en route for some place.

NEW YORK, March 8 .- The Herald's Wilmington correspondent, writing on the 3d, makes no allusion to the reported junction of Schofield's force with Sherman's Schofield was busy perfecting plans for the con-tinuance of his campaign in North Car-

Exchange of prisoners in Cape Fear river was going on. Our prisoners received look well, except their want of clothing. The Herald's correspondent shows that there were no less than 30 blockade runners lying in the port of Nassau, whose occupation is gone. They represent capital to the amount of millions of dollars. The Washington special says that Judge Edmonds is recommended for the Interior Department by the Governors of nine

SYMPTOMS.

The Symtoms of Catarrh are at first very slight. Persons find they have a cold, then they have frequent at-tacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition, the nase may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterward thick and adhesive

may ensue,
As the disease becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice thick and masal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place.

Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning. ing of a tnick or slimy muceus, which has fallen from the head during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should I se no time in arresting it. The above are but few of the many Catarrhal symptoms.
